

Syllabi for certificate course in Medical Jurisprudence, Criminal Law and Women, Law and Gender Justice were meticulously formulated by Board of Studies of the College. Further process of affiliation of University is in progress. Process of affiliation of PG Course of LL.M. in Business Law is in progress.

- ii. To prepare plan or making arrangement of Audio-Video recording room to strengthen ICT use in teaching and learning:

Regarding this issue, Prof. V.P. Maknikar and Dr. G.M. Fulzalke shared their views. According to Prof. Maknikar, there is need to make monetary provision for the room and he said that he would submit the approximate budget for the same in couple of days.

- iii. To make provision of Rs. 5000/year in the budget for research and lay down research policy: Policy for research has been prepared by the Research Committee to encourage and facilitate faculty members to participate in research programs.
- iv. To prepare committees for academic and administrative audit (AAA): Both the Committees are constituted.
- v. To take immediate steps for registration of alumni association: Process for registration is in progress.

Agenda No.2: To review the progress of AQEP 2018-19:

Programmes such as Swach Bharat, Gender Sensitization Week, one Day workshop for students about personality development, faculty development programmes, etc. One-Day orientation programme for faculty development were organized by the College while one Day FDP was arranged at sister institute at Beed on teaching, learning and evaluation and was also attended by faculty members.

Agenda No. 3: To review functioning of academic and administrative committees: The functioning of various administrative and academic committees was reviewed through programmes conducted by it. Overall progress was found satisfactory.