One Day Workshop on
New Criminal Laws in India – Paradigm Shift

The origin of present Indian legal system could be traced to the colonial rule. During colonial rule various criminal laws were introduced in India, namely Indian Penal Code, Criminal Procedure Code and the Indian Evidence Act. Since introduction of Indian Constitution, whole jurisprudence of criminal administration of justice has changed. But these old laws were still proving hurdles. One of the limitation was that those were not able to cater needs of contemporary society and modernized technological advancements. Therefore, New Criminal Laws (2023) have been introduced in India on 1st July, 2024 replacing the old Criminal Laws. In this regard M. S. P. Mandal's Shri Shivaji Law College, Parbhani in collaboration with Swami Ramanand Teerth Marathwada University, Nanded has organized one day University Level Workshop on “New Criminal Laws in India - Paradigm Shift” for the law faculty members and students of law on Saturday, 16th August, 2025.

Objectives:

1. To create awareness about these laws amongst students, researchers and law teachers.
2. To understand the changes introduced to modernized criminal justice and their impact.
3. To know whether these laws address need of fair trial and justice.
4. To know whether these laws address evolving needs of society as well as technological advancements in the field of science and technology.

Outcome:

1. The law students will become aware about the new criminal laws.
2. The students of law, researchers, teachers would understand modernized victim oriented criminal administration of justice.
3. The students, researchers and law teachers would understand changes introduced to conduct fair trial and deliver justice.
4. The law teachers, researchers will get well equipped with changed criminal administration of justice jurisprudence.
